

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Adesote Samson Adesola is a Senior Lecturer in the Department of History and International Studies, Faculty of Humanities, Osun State University, Osogbo, Nigeria. He is currently the Sub-Dean, Postgraduate, Faculty of Humanities of the University. He was formerly a lecturer in the Department of History and International Studies, McPherson University, Seriki-Sotayo, Ogun State. He has his Nigeria Certificate in Education (Economics/History) from Adeyemi College of Education, Ondo; B.A Ed History from Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife; M.A and PhD History from the University of Ibadan. He is a budding Historian and prolific writer. He has published extensively in many reputable local and international journals and edited books covering his areas of his research interests, that is, Economic and Social History of Nigeria with major emphasis on Migration, Conflict, Diaspora and Security Studies; and Political History. He is an active member of some professional bodies such as the Historical Society of Nigeria and African Economic History Network. Contact: solaade2007@ymail.com .

Peters Akin is a Chief Lecturer in the Department of History, School of Arts and Social Sciences, College of Education, Omu-Ijebu, Ogun State, Nigeria. He was formerly Head of Department of History and Dean, School of Arts and Social Sciences, College of Education, Omu-Ijebu. He has his M.A History from the University of Ibadan. His major areas of research interest include Social, Political and Economic History of Nigeria and Africa. He has published in local and international journals and edited books. He is a member of the Historical Society of Nigeria.

Hilmiye Nesrin Dilbaz, PhD, is Professor at Üsküdar University, Department of Clinical Psychology, İstanbul- Turkey. She graduated from Anadolu University Faculty of Medicine in 1984. Hilmiye Nesrin Dilbaz completed his doctorate in Adult Psychiatry in 1991 as Assistant Professor. Between 1991-2004, Hilmiye Nesrin Dilbaz worked as Psychiatry Specialist, Associate Professor, 2nd Psychiatry Clinic Chief and finally AMATEM Director at Ankara Numune Hospital. Since 2012, Hilmiye Nesrin Dilbaz has been managing NPİSTANBUL Brain Hospital Addiction Centre. Hilmiye

Nesrin Dilbaz main areas of research interest are substance abuse. Contact: hilmiyenesrin.dilbaz@uskudar.edu.tr.

Simona Fer, PhD, is Lecturer at the Faculty of History, International Relations, Political Science and Communication Sciences, Department of Political Science and Communication Sciences, University of Oradea. Her area of expertise are the Language of Journalism, News Agency Journalism, Basic and Social Communication in English. Contact: simonag_1976@yahoo.com.

Renato Galhardi is a Brazilian sociologist holding a Ph.D. in Social and Political Sciences from the Universidad Iberoamericana, in Mexico City (UIA). Renato holds a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from San Francisco State University (SFSU), a Masters in Social Sciences from the Latin American Faculty of Social Sciences, in Mexico City (FLACSO) is accredited as an International Migration specialist from the Colegio de la Frontera Norte, Tijuana (COLEF). He is currently studying the phenomenology of migration experiences of deported Mexican men in Tijuana. Renato currently lives in Mexico City with his life-partner and cat, Balzac. Contact: renato.almeida@correo.uia.mx

Gabriela Goudenhoft (PhD Habil.) Professor and Head of the Department of Political Science and Communication Studies, Member of the Board of Faculty of History, International Relation, Political Science and Communication, University of Oradea; particularly concerned to develop inter and cross disciplinary studies that combine knowledge from areas such as philosophy, sociology, law, social psychology, media studies, discourse studies, social imaginary etc. Author of several articles, studies and scientific papers, books in areas like political philosophy, social and political imaginary, diaspora, human rights, government, EU policy, communication and discourse analysis. Contact: gabrielagoud@gmail.com .

Johane Hlatywayo holds a PhD and a master's degree in environmental management. He is a dedicated scholar and educator known for his expertise in Physical Geography and Environmental Resource Management. With a strong desire to understand and protect our planet's ecosystems, Johane Hlatywayo has dedicated his career to both teaching and pioneering research in this critical field.

Simbarashe Jombo is a postdoctoral research fellow at Sol Plaatje University, Department of Physical and Earth Sciences in South Africa. His expertise includes remote sensing, GIS, and statistical analysis for environmental management and community benefit. He specialises in research on sustainable development, government policy implementation, and their effects on vulnerable communities.

Tabaro H. Kabanda is a lecturer at the University of Dodoma in the College of Earth Sciences and Engineering. With a Doctoral Degree in Geography and Environmental Science, their research interests lie in the interdisciplinary realm of earth and environmental systems sciences. Contact: kabandatabaro@gmail.com .

Cristina Matiuta, PhD, is Associate Professor at the University of Oradea, Romania, Department of Political Science and Communication. She teaches in the areas of Civil Society, Political Parties and Theory and practice of democracy. She is Jean Monnet professor in the cmatiuta@uoradea.ro. field of European integration studies. Contact: cmatiuta@uoradea.ro.

Irina Pop, PhD, is a Lecturer at the Department of Political Science and Communication Sciences at the University of Oradea. Her main research interest revolves around xenophobia, legal and illegal migration, and identity. Contact: popirinamihaela@gmail.com.

Kudzayi Savious Tarisayi, PhD, is a Senior Lecturer at Stellenbosch University, where he is affiliated with the Department of Curriculum Studies. He specializes in teaching Geography Education and has conducted research on a variety of topics, including teacher migration, integration of ICTs in Geography Education, and contemporary issues in education. Contact: kudzayit@gmail.com .

Gülşah Yıldırım is research assistant at Çanakkale Onsekiz Mart University, Faculty of Education, Department of Educational Sciences, Department of Guidance and Psychological, Turkey. She completed her master's degree in Üsküdar University Clinical Psychology in 2020. She is currently continuing her doctoral education in the field of Psychological Counseling and Guidance at Ege University. Gülşah Yıldırım, who started to work as a research assistant at Çanakkale Onsekiz Mart University in February 2020, still continues to work there. Gülşah Yıldırım main areas of research interest are disadvantaged individuals, identity, microaggression, mental health.

Contact: gulsah.yildirim@comu.edu.tr.